

KASIC NEWSLETTER

Issue Eight, Volume One

Norton Infectious Diseases Institute Grand Rounds Educational Series

Every Wednesday
from 12:00 – 12:30 PM EST

[Click here to add Grand Rounds
to your Calendar](#)

May 17th, 2023:

Surgical Specimens in Microbiology with
Alan Junkins, PhD

May 24th, 2023

Antibiotic Surgical Prophylaxis with
Matthew Song, PharmD, BCIDP

31st May, 2023

Antimicrobial stewardship: Are we missing
something with Timothy Wiemken, PhD, MPH

June 7th, 2023

Travel Screening with Julia Frith, DNP, RN, CIC

*Pictured Top: Downtown Covington
Attribution to Familypedia*

KASIC

Wondering how your carbapenem use compares with other Kentucky hospitals?

Meropenem and ertapenem days of therapy normalized to patient days has been compiled for 21 hospitals represented by the KASIC Advisory Board. Interested in see how your usage compares? Schedule a consultation with KASIC today to discuss your data and explore opportunities to preserve carbapenem therapy.

Click here to contact KASIC

What do LTC facilities in Kentucky need most in antimicrobial stewardship?

Click here to take the LTC antimicrobial stewardship needs assessment today! Your responses will help identify the areas where help is most needed in Kentucky.

Want to go ahead and get started on a LTC antimicrobial stewardship project at your facility? Schedule a consultation with KASIC by clicking contact KASIC.

Keep Up-to-Date with Meaningful Stewardship Literature

Ten of the top antimicrobial stewardship articles published in 2022 have been identified by the KASIC Advisory Board. Click here to see which articles were included. See what others working in antimicrobial stewardship think about these articles and how they plan to incorporate the new information into their own practices. Add your comments to help inspire others!